

To Whom It May Concern,I believe technical innovation is what makes America great and I truly benefit from being able to have clear information via XM. Please do not block its ability to broadcast local weather and traffic data. In the end this can be a boon to both XM and the local radio stations- forcing them to innovate and provide better local information than a national company like XM ever could.

Very Truly Yours,
Jerry G. Levy